Merced County

NAMI Merced County is a non-profit grassroots organization dedicated to improving the lives of those with mental illness through classes, support groups, school training as well as training for professionals.

FREE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

FAMILY TO FAMILY is a 12-week course for family members who want to gain vital information, insight and understanding about their loved one's mental illness. This course is taught by trained NAMI family members who have loved ones with a mental illness.

BASICS is a 6-week course for parents taught by trained parents who are also caregivers of children who developed the symptoms of mental illness in childhood. This program will help families cope with the impact these disorders have on their child and the entire family.

PEER TO PEER is a 10-week course that allows people living with mental illness to explore mental health issues, learn about the major brain disorders and develop coping skills. Socialize with others and find support from others.

FREE TRAINING

PARENTS AND TEACHERS AS ALLIES is for school staff and parents. Focuses on helping to understand the early warning signs of mental illness in children & adolescents and how to best intervene and link them with services.

ENDING THE SILENCE is aimed at middle and high school students. Presents information about mental illness and how to counter the stigma and get help for themselves or their friends.

PROVIDER TRAINING presents information and experiences from family and consumer perspectives to improve outcomes with those who work directly with people with severe and persistent mental illness.

CRISIS INTERVENTION TRAINING NAMI Merced partners with law enforcement and mental health providers to train first responders to deal effectively with mental health crises in the field.

IN OUR OWN VOICE is a public education program where individuals who have lived with mental illness share stories that help to enrich the audiences' understanding of how those with mental illness cope and can reclaim meaningful lives.

SUPPORT GROUPS

CONNECTION is a bi-monthly group for those suffering with mental illness. Share, listen and learn from others with similar challenges. Two Wednesdays per month from 5:30–7:00 pm.

FAMILY SUPPORT GROUP is for families of a person living with mental illness. Self care is needed to deal with the many challenges you face. Meets on most 2nd and 4th Mondays.

Please check the NAMI calendar at www.namimerced.org for specific dates and locations

GENERAL MEETINGS

BOARD MEETINGS are held every other month 5:30–7:00 pm. Check calendar online for dates and location.

Some classes and trainings available in Spanish. Please call or email for availability.
