

BUILDING A CULTURE OF DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Diversity and inclusion plays an important role in establishing a diverse workplace. It is important in the workplace to find the right balance and increase cultural awareness within an organization that serves a diverse population, not only to the consumers, but each other. This training is to encourage inclusion, respect and cultural sensitivity amongst our peers and those we serve. Together we will:

- analyze the knowledge of participants resulting in an increased level of appreciation for diversity and familiarity with the benefits of workplace diversity and inclusion;
- explain how diversity issues impact us in our daily interactions and in the workplace;
- create an open, honest, and frank dialogue through sharing information and active participation and;
- apply an understanding of the benefits of a diverse labor force and attain a commitment to change and progress by valuing differences.
